Suggested Use:

Laminate your desired signs. Then bind all signs except job title sign with a coil, or hole punch and secure with rings to create a flippable book. Punch a hole in the bottom middle of each page of the book. Punch a hole in the top middle of the job title sign. Finally, hang on your door (I use Command[®] removable hooks!) like a calendar and attach the job title sign to the top when it's open to the page you want to display.

You can also hang them other ways - this is just what I do!
